Life Together: What Is It We Actually Share

The Perfect Church Part 2 "A Check List for Church Shopping"

Pastor Froh's Note: This month I offer this column from the Rev. Matthew Harrison, President of the LCMS. In a recent article in The Lutheran Witness your church body President made these comments regarding the Life of the Church as it is lived together. The article was entitled as noted below: (<http://www.lcms.org/pages/wPagex.asp?ContentID=922&IssueID=52>)

Life Together: What Is It We Actually Share?

So, what is this "life together" in the Church? What does it mean that we in the Missouri Synod are "in this together"? And what finally holds us together anyway?

The answer to these questions would appear to be quite simple. We are like-minded religiously or at least enough to participate in a local congregation. We are comfortable together in this or that congregation. We are free to associate as we wish in this country and have freely decided to join our local LCMS church. Though we have many differences across the Synod, we share certain goals, and as free individuals and congregations, we freely decide to associate for worthy religious and charitable ends.

As much truth as there is in these answers, they certainly don't get at what the Bible says holds us together as Christian and truly Lutheran.

In the new three-fold emphasis—WITNESS, MERCY, LIFE TOGETHER—this third aspect of LIFE TOGETHER is how we've rendered the New Testament word koinonia. The word means "participation," "having something in common," or "a sharing in something." Quite often in the writings of St. Paul, when he mentions this sharing, he also notes what is shared. Thus, "God is faithful, by whom you were called into the fellowship [koinonia.] of His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord" (1 Cor. 1:9). In other words, those "called into fellowship" share Jesus.

Now note who the actor is: "God is faithful." He's the One acting. He's doing the primary sharing too! What Jesus says to His apostles applies also to us: "You did not choose Me, but I chose you" (John 15:16). "You were called [passive] into the fellowship of His Son." Because of God's action, God's doing, God's calling, we have been brought into a "fellowship," a "communion," a "sharing." As Paul notes, we share in "His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord."

This life in Christ—the vertical koinonia or sharing in Christ, created by Him—also creates a "life together" with others in Christ—the horizontal koinonia. Even with Christians with whom we do not share official church fellowship, we believe koinonia exists, though hidden. For we believe, with our Lutheran Confessions, that wherever Jesus is with His Word and Sacrament, there are believers (Preface to the Book of Concord), also far and wide outside the orthodox Lutheran Church, if only the Gospel is not totally eclipsed.

The great importance of koinonia as LIFE TOGETHER is marvelously displayed by St. Paul in 1 Corinthians 10–12, his great teaching chapters on the Lord's Supper and the Church. Paul writes, "The bread that we break, is it not a participation [koinonia] in the body of Christ?" In the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, we share Christ's body and blood, so Paul continues: "Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread" (1 Cor. 10:17). From our sharing in Christ's body come very deep ethical ramifications. Because we are one body in Christ, "If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honored, all rejoice together" (1 Cor. 12:26; cf. Acts 2:42, 45; 4:32).

Luther wrote a splendid tract on this topic. In one of my favorite passages, he stated, "This fellowship consists in this, that all the spiritual possession of Christ and his saints [i.e., believers] are shared with and become the common property of him who receives this sacrament. Again all sufferings and sins also become common property; and thus love engenders love in return and [mutual love] unites" (LW 35:51).

What do we share? What finally brings us together and holds us together? Jesus. And so we have a LIFE TOGETHER that includes a great array of important aspects and tasks (circuits, pastor and teacher conferences, Concordia Plan Services, seminaries and universities, reconciliation, CTCR, and many others).

Our life together is a gift ("spiritual possession of Christ") and a gift to be tended ("love engenders love . . . and unites").

Proclaiming the faith

A letter received from Rev. Matthew Harrison, President The Lutheran Church ---Missouri Synod:

I want to introduce to you a new theme as we go about Sharing Christ's Love which we will be using to share the ministry of our Synod. It centers around three concepts that will guide our work together. These are Witness, Mercy and our Life Together. Your prayers and support are essential. It is more important than ever that you and I help people live confidently for Christ and embrace people with His love.

COMMUNICATIONS RECEIVED

Greetings from Kenya

God's blessings to you. Lorna and I are doing well. We have moved to Kisumu. It is very hard to leave a place where you have poured out your heart and soul. God being so merciful has guided us to Kisumu. We thank God for introducing us and nurturing such a good relationship. Your prayers and support defines your hands of mercy and mission work around the world. We are planning to start our own school. Greet all at Grace for us. Rev. Dennis Meeker and Deaconess Lorna

CTS Military Project;

Dear Grace Lutheran Church,

Thank you for your gift to the Seminary's Military Project. Your mission offerings bring the mercy of Christ to the war zone for our LCMS chaplains and those they serve, both the military personnel and the indigenous people. We greatly appreciate your help with this important work.

Mission Festival at Grace

Dear members of Grace congregation
On behalf of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Kenya and those who will be trained for service as pastors and deaconesses, thank you so much for the opportunity to share in San Mateo what the Lord is doing at Matongo Lutheran Theological College through Project Timothy-Kenya. The visit at Grace was a highlight for me at this Christmas break between semesters. As I return to Africa next week, I am thanking our gracious God for you and for His provision of support for the coming year through your generosity!
